

English for Applied Arts and Design

Crossword Puzzle

Across

1. A line which stands or points straight up at an angle of 90 degrees to the horizontal. (adj)
4. A measurement of something in a particular direction, especially height, length or width. Does your TV have a 2-D or 3-D image? (n)
5. A building used for prayer and worship by some religious people especially Hindus and Buddhists. (n)
7. A relationship between the sizes of two numbers or amounts. For example, in high school there is a teacher to student _____ of approximately 1 to 28. (n)
8. The distance from one side of something to the other. (n)
12. Exact and accurate. (adj)
13. A painting, drawing or photograph of a person, especially of their face. For example, the Mona Lisa by Leonardo da Vinci. (n)
17. To separate into smaller parts. _____ six by two and it equals three. (v)
18. A picture of the countryside. (n)
19. Not the same in amount, number or size. In mathematics it is represented by the symbol  $\neq$ . (adj)
20. The distance from the bottom of something to the top. (n)

Down

2. Not showing emotion or feeling. (adj)
3. A line which is parallel to the ground, flat or level. (adj)
6. A regularly repeated arrangement or design. (n)
9. A shape with four straight sides and four angles of 90 degrees, but not a square. (n)
10. A shape made of curves, with each one bigger than the one before. Sea shells often contain this shape. (n)
11. Cloth on which an artist paints with oil paint. (n)
12. In mathematics, a quantity of something that is a part of the whole. For example, a large _____ of students in this class will go to university. (n)
14. Relating to things that you can see. (adj)
15. The distance from one end of something to the other. (n)
16. A pattern that is made up of shapes such as squares, triangles or rectangles. (adj)
19. Existing everywhere or involving everyone. For example, Music is a _____ language. (adj)

n noun    v verb    adj adjective    pv phrasal verb    id idiom    np noun phrase

Key:

portrait	A painting, drawing or photograph of a person, especially of their face. For example, the Mona Lisa by Leonardo da Vinci.
temple	A building used for worship in some religions, especially Hindus and Buddhists.
visual	Relating to things that you can see
universal	Existing everywhere or involving everyone. For example, Music is a ... language.
proportion	In mathematics, a quantity of something that is a part of the whole. A large .... of students in this class will go to university.
precise	Exact and accurate
divide	To separate into smaller parts. .... six by two and it equals three.
unequal	Not the same in amount, number or size. In mathematics it is represented by the symbol $\neq$ .
ratio	A relationship between the sizes of two numbers or amounts. In high school there is a teacher to student ... of approximately 1 to 28.
rectangle	A shape with four straight sides and four angles of 90 degrees.
canvas	Cloth on which an artist paints, usually using oil paint.
width	The distance from one side of something to the other
length	The distance from one end of something to the other.
height	The distance from the bottom of something to the top.
pattern	A regularly repeated arrangement or design.
spiral	A shape made of curves, with each one bigger than the one before. Sea shells often contain this shape.
dimension	A measurement of something in a particular direction, especially height, length, width. Televisions were traditionally 2-D, but recently 3-D televisions have become available.
landscape	A picture of the countryside
horizontal	A line which is parallel to the ground, flat or level.
vertical	A line which stands or points straight up at an angle of 90 degrees to the horizontal.
geometric	A pattern that is made up of shapes such as squares, triangles or rectangles
cold	Not showing emotion or feeling

